

Be the change

Do you want to join a program committed and actively working towards Truth and Reconciliation?

Alexander Sack-Redden
Katimavik Participant 2021

Katimavik

Katimavik, which means 'meeting place' in Inuktitut, offers youth development and empowerment opportunities across Canada.

Katimavik participants contribute to building stronger communities by volunteering with non-profit organizations, supporting community events, and engaging in Truth & Reconciliation learning.

The Katimavik National Experience challenges youth to make a positive impact in the communities while also developing a vast set of skills and competencies.

Are you?

- 17 – 25 years old?
- A resident or citizen of Canada?
- Motivated to learn new skills?
- Ready to meet the challenges of group living be a team player?
- Prepared to volunteer and participate in group activities?
- Feel able to fully commit to an immersive full-time program and be willing to work on your personal autonomy?

Applications to July–December 2021 are open! Apply now!

Katimavik is a partner with Indigenous Link's Community Connections

For more information or to apply:
GotoApply.ca/Katimavik

